Living a new life in Christ

From the desk of Dereck...

Feed on His faithfulness

The last four words of Psalm 37:3 (in the New King James Version) is intriguing: “feed on His faithfulness.” Picture a lamb out in the field of Israel—what is that lamb “feeding on” in the field? He has grass in abundance and to spare. Picture a child of a king walking into a banquet hall in the palace—what is that child “feeding on” in that colossal banquet hall? He has food and to spare.

Psalm 37 tells us, “Do not fret” (v. 1). Then it tells us, “Trust in the Lord” (v. 3). How can I possibly do those two things with all that is happening today? Read those last four words of verse 3 again: “feed on His faithfulness.” Pull up a comfortable chair at the banquet table of God Himself and realise that, on His menu, He has faithfulness and spare. He never lies (Heb. 6:18). He always sees and hears you (1 Pet. 3:12). He is always with you (Heb. 13:5). He can take care of every “fretful” thing that comes your way (Eph. 3:20; Rom. 8:28).

Our “God is faithful” always (1 Cor. 1:9). Feast on that!

It's always comforting to know that we serve not only a living, the only God, but also a God with the innate capacity to sustain His children.

Today and this week as you toil at your calling, never forget that the God we serve and are faithful to is the one and only one that can be trusted.

Have a great week.

Love in Christ

Dereck
