Some Thoughts On Reconciliation so sorely needed in our times.

2 Timothy 3:1 But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come:

<sup>2</sup> For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, <sup>3</sup> unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, <sup>4</sup> traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, <sup>5</sup> having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away! <sup>6</sup> For of this sort are those who creep into households and make captives of gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, <sup>7</sup> always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. (2 Tim. 3:1-7 NKJ)

One of the greatest needs in our world today, is the idea of reconciliation. In order to establish and continue a healthy and proper relationship with others, we must be willing to admit our share of the responsibility of that relationship and be willing to unconditionally forgive when we have been wronged. This value is core to us as Christians and so badly needed in our world today.

And let us realise that partial forgiveness is no forgiveness at all.

In fully admitting our share of the guilt, we may not restore any damage done, but it will reassure the other party that our motives are well-intended. Let's engage each other and see past each other's faults and see a Holy God who loves us and desires us to live in harmony together.

Our admission of guilt and our willingness to forgive, are the focal points around which true reconciliation revolves (Psalm 51; Ephesians 4:32; Colossians 3:12-13; cf. Matthew 6:14-15).

I pray that this week will be a great growth curve and release for you and I.

Have a blessed week

Love in Christ

Dereck
