Living a new life in Christ

From the desk of Dereck...

Judging The World And Angels

1 Corinthians 6:1 If any of you has a dispute with another, do you dare to take it before the ungodly for judgment instead of before the Lord's people? ² Or do you not know that the Lord's people will judge the world? And if you are to judge the world, are you not competent to judge trivial cases? ³ Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more the things of this life! ⁴ Therefore, if you have disputes about such matters, do you ask for a ruling from those whose way of life is scorned in the church? ⁵ I say this to shame you. Is it possible that there is nobody among you wise enough to judge a dispute between believers? ⁶ But instead, one brother takes another to court-- and this in front of unbelievers! ⁷ The very fact that you have lawsuits among you means you have been completely defeated already. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? ⁸ Instead, you yourselves cheat and do wrong, and you do this to your brothers and sisters.

(1 Cor. 6:1-8 NIV)

In 1 Corinthians 6:1-8, Paul asks two questions of the saints at Corinth, regarding saints judging the world (1 Corinthians 6:2) and angels (1 Corinthians 6:3). A question we might ask ourselves is, "In what manner are saints to judge the world and angels?"

The context in the beginning verses of 1 Corinthians 6 is in condemning the practice among the Corinthian congregation of taking each other to court before heathen judges (or any other, for that matter – 1 Corinthians 6:6-7) when they should be resolving their differences among themselves by seeking the wisdom of the wise among them (1 Corinthians 6:5). To emphasize the foolishness and inconsistency of this practice, Paul reminds them of the exalted status of the saints in "judging the world" (1 Corinthians 6:2) and in "judging angels" (1 Corinthians 6:3). How will this "judging" be accomplished? By the righteous course of conduct which epitomizes the righteousness of God. This is the standard of God's truth that condemns or approves any and all – righteousness (Psalm 119:142; cf. John 17:17); Psalm 119:144,151; Psalm 119:172). As the saint exemplifies that standard, he or she exemplifies the standard of conduct which shall ultimately be the standard of all (John 12:48-50; cf. Romans 9:30-33; Romans 10:1-4; Gal. 3:21-29).

In this letter Paul deepens the view Christians at Corinth view their conduct. It's a way Paul raises their view to have an eternal view on their lives.

I hope that this helps you look differently at your life this week.
