Living a new life in Christ

From the desk of Dereck...

And If We Suffer...

Paul promises that all who live godly in Christ will suffer persecution, ¹² "In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted," (2 Timothy 3:12), and it needs to be remembered that not all persecution is of a physical sort that touches our fleshly bodies. More, all will be tempted, ¹³ "No temptation ^[a] has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted ^[b] beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, ^[c] he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it." (1 Corinthians 10:13), and all will have those occasions when they sin, ⁸ "If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. ⁹ If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰ If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word is not in us." (1 John 1:8, 10). None can claim exemption here!

Some of God's children will know and experience painful afflictions, due to their living in a tabernacle of clay, and due to disease touching them in a way that does not come to everybody. God's child, of course, takes what comes his way in this life, and possesses the faith that he and God can handle it all! But we note just here 2 Corinthians 4:17, where Paul mentions affliction, and ties to it the fact that God proportionately prepares blessings. "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory." We're glad it's thus stated, that those enduring pain can know that blessings and joy are prepared on the other side to more than offset the troubles known in this life! (THE SOUTHWESTERN, May 10, 1989)

May we hold fast to God's promises as we face the week ahead confident that He will make a way for us.
