Living a new life in Christ

From the desk of Dereck...

Practical Principles In Raising Our Children

The following thoughts from Wilferd A. Peterson, a prolific American writer, contain practical principles regarding the raising of our children:

- "Of all the commentaries on the Scriptures," wrote John Donne, "good examples are the best."
- In practicing the art of parenthood, an ounce of example is worth a ton of preaching.
- Our children are watching us live, and what we are shouts louder than anything we can say.
- When we set an example of honesty, our children will be honest.
- When we demonstrate good sportsmanship, they will be good sports.
- When we meet life with laughter and a twinkle in our eye, they will develop a sense of humor.
- When we are thankful for life's blessings, they will be thankful.
- When we express friendliness, they will be friendly.
- When we speak words of praise, they will praise others.
- When we confront failure, defeat, and misfortune with a gallant spirit, they will live bravely.
- When our lives affirm our faith in the enduring values of life, they will rise above doubt and scepticism.
- When we surround them with the love and goodness of God, they will discover life's deeper living.
- When we set an example of heroic living, they will be heroes.

Don't just stand there pointing your finger to the heights you want your children to scale. Start climbing and they will follow!

—Wilferd A. Peterson

Pray you have a good look at these values to instil into children,

Love

Dereck
